Fun Fact about Vienna

We like clocks!

You probably know that by now though, right? You've noticed the big clocks all through out our building? All of these clocks come from House of Clocks in downtown Lodi. The owners even give a grandfather clock to employees who've been with the company for 25 years!

Next time you've got some time, count how many clocks there are. Look in offices, look in the common areas, look in the halls... It's really grown to be an impressive collection.

Look for that plays Beatles music and the newest one right in the front waiting room. Check out the one that was gifted to the Heffels for the 50 year anniversary with Vienna. There's different musical ones in about half of the offices, ones with chimes, plus all the beautiful grandfather clocks.

May Recap

Last month at Vienna...

We went to the Lodi Memorial Foundation's annual Walk for the Health of It

We celebrated our staff during National SNF Week with spirit week and a taco party

We've enjoyed lots of flowers. Thank you to all who've been donating their wedding flowers!

Dad Jokes

In honor of Fathers Day, Vienna is sharing some of our favorite "Dad Jokes." For anyone who isn't familiar with the term dad joke tend to be cringe-worthy and heavy on the puns. Enjoy!

1. How many apples grow on a tree? All of them!
2. Why do we go to bed every night? Because the bed doesn't come to us!"
3. How do you make holy water? You boil the hell out of it!
4. What do you get from a pampered cow? Spoiled milk
5. Where do baby cats learn to swim?
6. Where did the one-legged waitress work? Ihop
7. What do you call someone with no body and no nose? Nobody knows.
8. What did what ocean say to other? Nothing! They just waved.
9. How do celebrities stay cool? They have many fans
10. Why didn't the melons get married? Because they cant elope.
11. Why are elevator jokes so good? They work on so many levels.
12. Did you get a haircut? No, I got all my hairs cut!
13. KID: "Dad, make me a sandwich!"
DAD: "Poof, you're a sandwich!"

Chilaquiles Brunch Casserole

Ingredients:

- 12 small (6-inch) corn tortillas, quartered and fried until crisp
- 1 1/4 cups (from a 10-oz can) red enchilada sauce
- 1 3/4 cups (from a 15-oz can) black beans, drained and rinsed
- 2 cups (8 oz) coarsely grated shredded Monterey jack or cheddar cheese
- 6 to 8 large eggs
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- Thinly sliced scallions, sour cream, diced avocado, and hot sauce, to finish and serve

Directions:

1. Turn oven to 375°F. Coat a 3-quart baking dish (mine was 7.5-x-11.5 inches) with oil or a nonstick spray.
2. Spread 1/4 of tortillas in bottom of dish. Drizzle/scatter with 1/4 (eyeballing it) of enchilada sauce, followed by black beans and cheese. Repeat 3 times.
3. Bake for 15 minutes, until cheese is melted and tortillas have softened a little.
4. Remove from oven to a cooling rack (leaving oven on) and use a spoon or fork to push little nests into the tortillas where you'd like each egg to go (it won't fully hold it, but will help them stay in place).
5. Crack 6 to 8 eggs. Season the eggs with salt and pepper and return casserole to the oven until the whites of the eggs are opaque but not fully set.
6. Remove from oven and let rest on a rack for (about) 4 to 8 minutes, after which the whites should be fully set but the yolks still runny and serve with finishes of your choice.

What are Chilaquiles?

Pronounced CHEE-lah-KEE-less, this is a traditional Mexican dish. This is a popular dish for left over tortillas and salsa and is typically made with corn tortillas. This is a take on the traditional version and just as yummy as ever!

Get to Know Medical Records Director, Brittany

Q: How long have you been at Vienna?

A: I started when I was 15 but left for a bit then came back. So I've been here 14 years.

Q: What does Medical Records do?

A: Medical records maintains and organizes every patient, every resident file. All of your medical history that needs to be organized and stored I take care of. I also help when insurance needs more medical information. I'm able to take care of those technical things so that people can focus on their health.

Q: What's your favorite part about working at Vienna?

A: Working with staff that feels like family. I know everyone here. I've grown up with most of these people, I know their kids, I know their spouses, we're all family and I really like that.

Q: You also help take pictures when we have special things going on. Can you share a little about that?

A: Sure! Photography is a hobby for me and I love it. It makes me feel really good when families appreciate the photos I'm able to capture of residents. I've been able to capture a lot of happy moments when families aren't here, and to be able to share those and see the joy it brings them makes me feel really good.

A Father's Love

Five little girls and two little boys
All seven have brought me wonderful joy!
While some are fair, and some are dark,
Yet each one shares my loving heart.

Their every word, their every smile,
Make sacrifices all worth while.
And as they grow and meet new friends
My days of importance seem to end.

They have found new interest, a world to explore;
And I am not needed as before.
Yet their love is there, as great as mine;
It only changed with the passing time.

I am wealthy with all that love,
And I owe it all to the Lord above.
With tear-filled eyes and an aching heart,
I know this world I must depart.

And the love for my children I have in my breast,
Will live long after they lay me to rest.
I pray I will join them in the Kingdom above,
Where we can be together, and share in His love!

- David W. Harding
